For 35 years, Soul Train reigned as the "hippest trip in America," kicking down barriers and irrevocably changing the face of television.

From its 1971 premiere, the show offered a window into black culture, introducing a nation to music and dance, which they had never seen. An arbiter of taste and style from the start—if you were hot enough for the public to want to see you, then you earned a ticket on the Soul Train.

And we're making a comeback.

The Soul Train Awards returns, on BET and VH1's new network; Centric, with a stellar two hour show that bridges the gap between the soulful sounds of yesterday and today. This ratings blockbuster is guaranteed to ignite excitement like never before, with the show format including glitzy red carpet arrivals, explosive show performances, and unlike other awards shows the audience is the Soul Train dancers making this a one of a kind interactive experience.

Stay tuned...
